Important Information.

We publish the following section from the Revenue laws as matter of information to those interested:

"SEC. 48. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every person who empties or draws off, or causes to be emptied or drawn off, any distilled spirits from a cask or package bearing any mark, brand, or stamp required by law, at the time of emptying such cask or package, to efface and obliterate said mark, stamp or brand. Any such cask or package from which said mark, brand and stamp is not so effaced and obliterated, as herein required, shall be forfeited to the United States, and may be seized by any officer of internal revenue wherever found. Any railroad company or other transportation company, or person who shall receive or have in possession with intent to transport, or with intent to cause or procure to be transported, any such empty cask or package, or any part thereof, having thereon any brand, mark, or stamp required by law to be placed on any cask or package containing distilled spirits, shall forfeit three hundred dollars for each such cask or package, or any part thereof, so received or transported, or had in possession with the intent aforesaid; and any boat, railroad car, cart, dray, wagon or other vehicle, and all horses or other animals used in carrying or transporting the same, shall be forfeited to the United States. Any person who shall fail or neglect to efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand, at the time of emptying such cask or package, or who shall receive any such cask or package, or any part thereof, with the intent aforesaid, or who shall transport the same, or knowingly aid or assist therein, or who shall remove any stamp provided by this act, from any cask or package containing or which had contained distilled spirits, without defacing and destroying the same at the time of such removal, or who shall aid or assist therein, or who shall have in his possession any such stamp so removed, as aforesaid, or have in his possession any cancelled stamp, or any stamp which has been used, or which purports to have been used, upon any cask or package of distilled spirits, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars, and imprisonment not less than one year nor more than five years."

The New York Star is shocked at the rapid stride of licentiousness among us—as visible especially in the indecent pictures and pictorials that meet the eye in every direction, to say nothing of the nudities of the modern drama. It says:

The mere display of the human form in various stages of partial clothing (the editor thinks) is reprehensible or not, according as evil intention in the exhibitor can or cannot be observed. It is an open question whether the nudity of chaste statues of the Grecian type do not promote morality. But we have certainly taken a great stride downward when pictorials containing pictures that appeal to the taste of the lowest class of picture buyers, are paraded alongside the unexceptionable periodicals. Thus, step by step, the purest people are driven from their various sources of amusement. They cannot gaze into windows containing these and similar pictures. They cannot attend theatres, because there they see these same displays in the living form. They cannot go to the opera, because the victories of evil are there sung by sirens of melodious accent.—They cannot go to balls, because they begin at an hour when they should close, and the dancing, instead of being the healthy exercise it should be, and instead of simply offering a natural method of mental and physical contact between the sexes, is imported from places where the better impulses of nature are generally scoffed at. The day of Puritanism is passed; but in throwing Cromwell over, let us not take up with Charles II.—Let us have liberty without licentiousness.

Last Tuesday, Vice President Colfax astonished the Saints of Salt Lake City by making them a speech, in which he characterized polygamy as unwise and illegal, and called upon the people to abolish it. Such a speech a few years back would have been rewarded with assassination.

The Mosby-Boyd "Duel."

Correspondence between Col. Mosby and Col. Boyd.

The subjoined correspondence, which we publish by authority, fully explains the rumors which have been afloat in this and other communities in reference to a duel between the above mentioned parties, and so plainly traces the quarrel through its different stages to its denoument as to need no word of comment:

[NO. 1—COL. MOSBY TO COL. BOYD.]

WARRENTON, Va., 1st October, 9½ P.M. 1869.—Sir—When we casually met on the road this morning, you informed me that you felt yourself aggrieved by my course towards you, and that you desired satisfaction for it, which I acknowledge my readiness to render you. I now formally notify you of my acceptance of your proposition for a fight.

The bearer of this, Colonel Smith, is authorized to arrange the terms of a meeting. Respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN S. MOSBY.

Col. W. H. Boyd.

[NO. 2—COL. BOYD TO COL. SMITH.]

WARRENTON, Va., 1st October, 9½ P.M. 1869.—Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a communication from Colonel Mosby by your hands.

Without putting this matter in other hands, I reply at once, to inform you that I am not willing to be placed in the position which Colonel Mosby assumes—that of a challenging party. I did not "desire satisfaction," nor make the "proposition to fight." My words were, that if he continued to interfere with my business, I would make it a "personal matter." To this note I can, therefore, make no other reply.

I am, sir, very respectfully

Your obedient servant,

W. H. BOYD.

Colonel Thomas Smith.

[NO. 3.—COL. MOSBY TO COL. BOYD.]

WARRENTON, October 1st, 1869.—Sir—This morning you informed me that you desired satisfaction for alleged wrongs I have done you, and I immediately answered that I was ready to give it. An agreement for a fight was then made to come off on your return to Warrenton. Accordingly, as soon as I heard that you had returned, I addressed you a formal acceptance for a proposition to fight. Col. Smith, the bearer of my note to you, has just shown me one addressed to you by him, in which you ignore the fact that there was any agreement for a fight, and say "that you desire no satisfaction," and that you simply notified me "than if I continued to interfere with your business you would make it a personal matter." I certainly did not so understand you: and I wish you to know that so long as the interests of my clients and the people of Fauquier county demand it, I shall "continue to interfere in your business."

I now demand of you satisfaction for the language used by you in reference to myself. Colonel Smith is authorized to arrange the terms of a meeting. Respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN S. MOSBY.

Colonel W. H. Boyd.

[NO. 4—COL. BOYD TO COL. MOSBY.]

WARRENTON, Va., October 2, 1869.—Sir:—Your statement in your letter of 1st instant that I "desired satisfaction for alleged wrongs that you had done me" is without foundation, as well as "that an agreement for a fight was then made." Your "formal acceptance" was a "proposition" of your own. Your proposition must be made on other terms—that of satisfaction for words addressed to you. To words when properly quoted I will reply. I did not allude to your "clients and the people of Fauquier," therefore waive remarks with regard to them. It is not for me to discuss your intentional misrepresentation of my words in my note to Colonel Smith, in which you state, with quotation marks, "that you (Boyd) desire no satisfaction." Two letters having passed between us without your using the language of provocation towards you, I deem a further correspondence useless.

I am your obedient servant,

W. H. BOYD.

Colonel John S. Mosby.

[NO. 5—COL. MOSBY TO COL. BOYD.]

[Reply to note received at 10 o'clock, A. M.]

WARRENTON, October 3d, 1869—Sir:—Your note of the 2d is evasive. If I omitted your offensive language, it was because I desired no explanation or apology. My object has been to test whether you would fight as a gentleman; and to remove all pretext for further equivocation, I now quote your objectionable language. You said that you "could prove in Pennsylvania that I was a highway robber" I now demand satisfaction (not explanation or equivocation).

Will you fight?

Col. Smith has full authority to act.

Respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN S. MOSBY.

Col. W. H. Boyd.

MEMORANDA.

WARRENTON, October 8, 1869.—The communications to Col W. H. Boyd, late Colonel in the Federal army, and now, by appointment of General Canby, sheriff of Fauquier county, were delivered by me to him as follows: The first, dated October 1st, about 9 o'clock P. M. of same day; the second of October 1st, about 10 o'clock A. M. on the 2d October; and the last dated 3d instant, about 10 o'clock A. M. same day. Col Byod's note of 2d instant was not received by Col Mosby until 9 o'clock A. M. on the 3d October. Col Mosby has never received any reply to his last note to Col. Boyd. Col. Mosby, when sending his first note of acceptance to Col. Boyd, instructing me to propose Colt's army pistols, with the use of which, both parties having been cavalry officers, were presumed to be familiar, as the weapon of combat.

The Rocky Mountains.

One who starts with the idea of being greatly impressed by the Rocky Mountains is sure of disappointment. The ascent begins as soon as you leave Omaha, and you ride five hundred and fifty miles before reaching the summit,—the grade being so gradual that you scarcely notice it except during the last four or five hours. The scenery at the highest point, Sherman, is no way specially noticeable, and one does not recognize that he is at the summit except by reference to his table of elevations. There I discovered that we had mounted upward 4,300 feet in 150 miles, and 2,200 in the last 33 mile section. There is a rareness in the atmosphere quite unusual and bewildering; one draws longer and deeper inhalations; distances are confusing—beyond that is the only fact that the mountain-top has been gained and that the downward slope to Salt Lake Valley now begins. The ascent of the Sierra Nevada range is something different. It begins about Reno. We climb only 2,500 feet in 50 miles, but it is unmistakably a mountain. The grade is gradual enough, for the road winds about among the peaks and spurs with a suggestive charm of human foresight and ingenuity, but the towering slopes on the one side and the yawning chasms on the other make you realize what you are doing; and the superb scenery all around gives a sense of satisfaction for which I had ached through hundreds and hundreds of miles of sage brush and buffalo grass and alkah sand.—Boston Advertiser.

SLUBS ON WOMEN.—Of all the evils prevalent among young men, we know of none more blighting in its moral effects than to speak slightingly of the virtue of women. Nor is there anything in which young men are so thoroughly mistaken as the low estimate they form of the integrity of women—not of their own mothers and sisters, but of others, who, they forget, are somebody else's mothers and sisters. As a rule, no person who surrenders to this debasing habit is to be trusted with any enterprise requiring integrity of character. Plain words should be spoken on this point, for the evil is a general one, and deep-rooted. If young men are sometimes thrown into the society of thoughtless or lewd women, they have no more right to measure all other women by what they see of these than they would have to estimate the character of honest and respectable citizens by the developments of crime in our police courts. Let our young men remember that their chief happiness of life depends upon their utter faith in women. No worldly wisdom, no misanthropic philosophy, no generalization, can cover or weaken this fundamental truth. It stands like the record of God itself—for it is nothing less than this—and should put an everlasting seal upon lips that are wont to speak silghtingly of women.

American Odd-Fellow.

THE GERMAN EXPEDITION to the North Pole has been heard from, Dr. Peterman having received a letter containing intelligence to July 29th. Contrary winds and storms had detained the expedition until July in the North Sea, and forced it to keep near the coast of Norway. The first ice was encountered on the 12th of July, in 74 degrees north latitude and 10 degrees west longitude. Up to the 29th of July the expedition had not reached the coast of Greenland which was however, in sight. At 115 English miles from the coast the soundings showed a depth of 7,000 feet. Capt. Koldeway reports that the prospects of the expedition are more promising than they were in 1868. The temperature is, higher the winds more constant, and the ice looser; but from the 9th to the 29th of July much foggy weather prevailed. The ship is in excellent condition, and the crew in good health.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.—At a church in Essex, lately, the clerk feeling unwell, asked his friend, the railway porter, to take his place for a Sunday. He did so, but being worn out with night work fell asleep. When the hymn was announced, a neighbor gave him a nudge, upon which he startled up, rubbing his eyes, and called out, "Change here for Elmswell, Thurston and Bury!"

THE tobacco crop in Caswell and adjoining counties has been seriously injured by frost.—Goldsboro Messenger.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Fall and its Dangers.

Animal as well as vegetable life is powerfully affected by the great atmospheric change that takes place in the Fall. But for the flowers, the foliage and the herbs of the field there is no help. Their time has come and die they must. It is otherwise with man. For him the means of reinvigoration have been provided by skill and science. To recruit his exhausted energies and fortify himself against the disorders generated by the sudden depression of temperature and the unwholesome exhalations of Autumn, let him tone his nervous system, invigorate his digestion and give edge to his appetite with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. He may then face the morbid influences of the season fearlessly. The chilling night dews and heavy morning mists will have no power to make him shiver and burn, to affect his liver, to disorder his stomach or his bowels, to rack his joints with rheumatism, or to render any latent element of disease in his system active and dangerous. To the sufferer from general debility, whether constitutional or arising from other causes,—this potent vegetable specific is earnestly recommended. And let it be remembered that physical weakness opens the door to all maladies. Vigor is the chief defence of the human structure against all causes of disease, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be truly pronounced the safest and surest of all invigorants. It is the most genial of all vegetable tonics, and is admirably adapted to the wants and weaknesses of the more delicate sex, as well as to the ailments of men.

FORTY THOUSAND CASES OF GOODS were shipped from our house in One Year, to families, clubs and merchants in every part of the country, from Maine to California, amounting in value to over

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Our facilities for transacting this immense business are better than ever before. We have agents in all the principal cities to purchase goods from the manufacturers, importers, and others for cash, and often at an immense sacrifice from the original cost of production.

Our stock consists, in part, of the following goods:

Shawls, Blankets, Quilts, Cotton, Gingham, Dress Goods, Table Linen, Towels, Hosiery, Gloves, Skirts, Corsets &c., &c.

Silver-Plated Ware, Spoons plated on Nickle Silver, Desert Forks, five bottle plated Castors, Britannia Ware, Glass Ware, Table and Pocket Cutlery in great variety.

Elegant French and German Fancy Goods, Beautiful Photograph Albums the newest and choicest styles in Morocco and Velvet Bindings.

Morocco Travelling Bags, Handkerchiefs and Glove Boxes, &c.

Gold and Plated Jewelry, of the latest styles.

We have also made arrangements with some of the leading Publishing Houses, that will enable us to sell the standard and latest works of popular authors at about one half the regular price:—such as BYRON, MOORE, BURNS, MILTON, and TENNYSON'S WORKS, in full Gilt and Cloth Bindings,—and hundreds of others.

These and everything else for

ONE DOLLAR FOR EACH ARTICLE.

We do not offer a single article of merchandise, that can be sold by regular dealers at our price. We do not ask you to buy goods from us unless we can sell them cheaper than you can obtain them in any other way,—while the greater part of our goods are sold at about

One-half the Regular Rates.

We want good reliable agents in every part of the Country. By employing your spare time to form Clubs and sending us orders, you can obtain the most liberal commissions, either in cash or merchandise, and all goods sent by us will be as represented: and we guarantee satisfaction to every one dealing with our house.

Agents should collect ten cents from each customer and forward to us in advance, for Descriptive Checks of the goods we sell.

The holders of the Checks have the privilege of either purchasing the article thereon described, or of exchanging for any article mentioned on our catalogue, numbering over 350 different articles—not one of which can be purchased in the usual way for the same money.

The advantages of first sending for Checks are these: We are constantly buying small lots of very valuable goods, which are not on our catalogues, and for which we issue checks till all are sold; besides, in every large club we will put checks for WATCHES, QUILTS, BLANKETS, DRESS PATTERNS, or some other article of value, giving some members of the club an opportunity of purchasing an article for about one quarter of its value.

In every order amounting to over $50, accompanied by the cash, the Agent may retain $2.00, and in every order of over $100, $3.00 may be retained to

PAY THE EXPRESS CHARGES.

This offer is more especially to assist Agents in the Western and Southern States, but is open to all customers.

COMMISSIONS

Agents will be paid ten per cent. in Cash or Merchandise, when they fill up their entire club, for which below we give a partial List of Commissions:

One of the most wonderful curiosities in the Salem, Mass., museum is known as "Heaven and Hell." It is a globe made of boxwood 2½ inches outside diameter. The other represents hell, and contains fifty-two figures.—It is supposed to have been the work of a monk of the fourteenth century.

A BEREAVED HUSBAND.—The following card by a bereaved husband, published in a German weekly paper, is probably the most extraordinary composition of the kind in record:

"Today red tomorrow dead," so it was with my wife, who only eight days ago was jumping over tables and chairs. Yesterday all that was mortal of her was interred. She was during her marriage a lively woman, with whom one had to mind one's P's and Q's; therefore my sorrow may be imagined. So young, so festive, and already buried! What is human life, said I repeatedly to myself all these days and again yesterday in the churchyard, when I paid the sexton, who will keep the grave in order. I shall certainly never find so cheerful a wife again; therefore my sorrow is just. I wish Heaven may keep every one from so sad a fate, and I thanke for the floral decorations, as also the choirmaster for the funeral chant which went through and through me, but was very well performed."

TRUE TURN.—Two Yankees strolling in the woods without any arms in their possession observed a bear climbing a tree, with its paws clasped around the trunk. One of them ran forward and caught the bear's paws, one in each hand. He then called to his comrade: Jonathan, run home and bring me something to kill this varmint; and mind you don't stay or I'm in a fix.'

Jonathan ran off, but staid a long time. During the interval the bear made several attempts to bite the hand of him who held it.

At length Jonathan came back.

"Hallo, what kept you so long?"

"Well, I'll tell you. When I got home breakfast was ready; so I staid to eat it."

"Well," said his comrade, "come now and hold the critter till I kill it."

Jonathan seized the bear's paws and held the animal.

"Well, have you hold of him?"

"I guess I have."

"Very well, then, hold fast; I'm off for dinner."

ARRIVAL OF A U. S. GUNBOAT IN OUR WATERS—THE OLD "ADVANCE."—Our port was again thrown into a state of curiosity and excitement by the arrival yesterday afternoon of the U. S. Gunboat "Frolic," from N. York, under orders of the proper Department at Washington. The "Frolic" left New York on the 7th instant, and is commanded by Commander Henry Wilson of the U. S. Navy. She has an armament of nine guns, with a full complement of men.

The first act of the commander was to forbid Commodore Higgins, of the Cuban steamship "Cuba," from leaving port until the case of his vessel had been definitely decided. In this Commander Wilson stated that he was acting under the orders of the President. The correspondence appears in this issue.

The "Frolic" will be better recollected as the "Advance," purchased during the late war by the State of North Carolina for the purpose of running the blockade and supplying the State troops in the field with the necessary arms and munitions of war, clothing and provisions. She made several successful trips into our port, whereby the necessities of North Carolina soldiers were greatly relieved, but was finally captured by the blockading fleet. Her dimensions, capacity and speed are quite familiar to a large portion of our readers.

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF

FORTY PER CENT.

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

PRUDENCE AND CAUTION

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF

ITS SUCCESS.

PARLOR HEATERS,

COOKING STOVES,

COOKING RANGES,

HOT-AIR FURNACES, &c.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

AND GAS BURNERS,

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANLY, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
